Frankfort Methodists to Break Ground For New Church Sunday

A contract for the new Methodist church in Frankfort has been let and the formal ground breaking ceremony will take place Sunday morning at 10:15 on the site at Sauk Trail and Linden Drive.

The contract for the edifice was made by Hansen & Peterson Co., at a meeting Monday night. Work on the excavation is scheduled to begin next Monday morning. Officials of the building firm estimated that it will be 40 weeks before the church is completed.

Plans for the church were prepared by Charles E. Stade and Associates of Park Ridge. It is L-shaped with the long side 98 feet long and the other wing 86 feet in length. The building will be 32 feet in width. It is of contemporary architecture and will be of brick construction with stone facings. The cost is estimated at around $165,000.

The congregation is to convene at the present church at 9:30 Sunday morning, and the worshippers and the children of the Sunday school will proceed to the building site at 10:15 o'clock.

Representatives of the various organizations of the church will participate in the ground breaking ceremony. Those taking part in the program will be Mrs. Lillie Herschbach, as the oldest active member; the Rev. Ben F. Day, as pastor; Calvert Heath, Jr., as church school superintendent; Ralph Dralle, as chairman of the official board, Albert Swatek, as lay leader; Arthur C. Minnie Kohl Dies Suddenly

Mrs. Minnie Kohl, nee Schilling, died suddenly in her home on East 19th st., east of Mokena Tuesday at 11:30 as she was seated at the dinner table. She had been in ill health for a few years and a few weeks ago suffered a stroke.

Born in Tinley Park June 22, 1885, she was united in marriage with Christ Kohl June 6, 1903, and set up housekeeping on a farm on Maple road near Mokena. A few years later they bought the farm on 19th st., where they lived until retiring in 1940. At that time they built a new home a short distance from the farm, where they had lived since. The Kohls were privileged to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary last June.

Surviving beside her husband are two sons, Herbert of Matteson, and Alvin, Mokena, three grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. Katherine Ihlenfeldt, Tinley Park; three brothers, Henry and Otto Schilling, Tinley Park and John, of Blue Island. Another sister, Mrs. Bertha Hupe, Homewood passed away several years ago.

Removal was made to the Hirsch chapel in Tinley Park where friends called Thursday afternoon and evening. Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. from the Immanuel Lutheran church, Mokena, with the Rev. A. W. Gode, officiating. Burial will be in St. John's cemetery, Mokena.

Matasovics Show Herefords at International Stock Exhibition

The Matasovic family, which has a farm a mile west of Mokena on Franc's road, will be well represented at the International Stock Show which is now open in Chicago.

John Matasovic specializes in raising pure bred Herefords. His farm, known as the Oxohereford farm, will have four entries in the show, two bull calves, a senior and junior, and two summer yearling heifers (two heifers who were a year old last summer.)

And the two daughters of the household, Linda, 14, a student at Lincoln-Way high, and Marilyn, 11, a pupil in the 6th grade at Haven school, New Lenox, will each have a steer entered in the 4H competition.

Marilyn acquired her entry last summer at the Wisconsin Hereford field day show at Lake Geneva. She won it thru her proficiency as a cattle judge. She returned in the only perfect scoring effort of all the adults and youngsters entered in the contest.

Linda, who has won championships with a Hereford heifer at the Will County 4-H show and the Illinois state fair, will be trying for new honors. Both girls are members of the Frankfort-New Lenox 4-H club.

The steers entered by both youngsters are summer yearlings and each weighs around 140 pounds and have the conformation necessary when competing on the big time and certainly the International is big time.

The two animals were taken to Chicago Wednesday.

Linda's entry is scheduled to be judged Saturday and Marilyn's on Monday.

Judging of the four cattle entered by Oxohereford farm will take place Monday and Tuesday of next week.

Two of the cattle are offspring of Portage Mixer I, a prize bull owned by the farm, who has fathered several grand and reserve champions.

Mr. Matasovic also operates a welding and welding supply business in New Lenox, the Universal.

Launch Huge Home Project at Tinley Park

A five million dollar home development project was started in Tinley Park last Monday, when ground was broken for the first of 423 homes to be erected within a period of five years by Lenny Cooper, developer.

The homes will be constructed on 110 acres within the boundaries of 173rd st., on the north; 175th st., on the south; on the east by Harlem ave. and on the west by Ozanam ave.

Originally the project was planned by three developers, two of whom have withdrawn and Cooper is now sole developer of the property.

Five model homes will be constructed immediately for display purposes. Full scale construction is expected to begin in the spring of 1957.

The homes, which will range in price from $16,500 to $18,900, will be of brick construction. They will have three and four bedrooms and one and a half baths. All will have basements.

They will be of three types; ranch, tri-level, and Cape Cod styles. The lot on the average will be approximately 60 by 130 feet.

Plans for the St. Mary's parish bazaar to be held Dec. 1 are being pushed by the various committees in charge.

Mrs. Hertha Rogers and Mrs. Eleanor Muehler are busy with final arrangements for a Mexican booth at which many wares, imported from south of the border will be available. Included among the goods will be wallets, purses, perfumes, dolls, cups and saucers, vases and pictures.

Elect 5 Members to Mokena Park Board For 2-Year Terms

Delegates from the 20 organizations that serve the civic, cultural, spiritual and economic life of Mokena have held their annual meeting to elect five residents to the Community park committee.

Five were elected, three of them to serve another term, and two as new members. They are elected for two years.

The three chosen who were serving on the committee are, Mrs. Hugo Niethammer, Ray Hoochman and Charles Swanberg. The two members are, LaVerne Yunker, whose farm is on the edge of the village, and Arthur Omland, who is quite active in Boy Scout work.

The meeting at which the park committee members were named was held last Thursday night in the Mokena VFW hall. It was attended by 37 delegates and alternates.

The park group will meet soon to name a chairman and make plans for the coming year. The committee reported that last summer nine groups reserved the park for picnics and outings and it is their idea that the number will be multiplied many times in the next season.

Increased use of the park and its facilities is the number one objective of the committee. It also plans to increase the size of the picnic area. Fourteen more picnic tables are to be installed and three fireplaces built.

A scoreboard is to be installed at the baseball field and two backstops also are slated for the diamonds, plus a set of bleachers.

The water line is to be extended and road and parking sections graveled. Parking area will be clearly defined by posts.

The VFW post is to erect a flagpole and the Mokena Lions club plans to provide equipment for the play areas.

Last year the Lions built a skating pond at the park which will be used again this year. Lights at the pond also are on the agenda and should make the place even more popular, it was pointed out.

The Girl Scouts held day camp sessions at the park last summer and are expected to do so again next year. The Small Fry and Babe Ruth leagues and other baseball teams will again make use of the park diamond next season.

Hold Rites For Dr. Kingston At Lockport

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock for Dr. E. A. Kingston, late of Lockport, who died Tuesday. He was 80 years old and a well known figure thruout Will county. The services will be held from the Goodale funeral home at Lockport.

Dr. Kingston was one of the fine surgeons in the middle west. He began practicing medicine in Lockport about 53 years ago and never really ceased until just a short time ago. He closed his office two years ago, but continued to see some patients at his home until just recently. They just refused to let him quit.

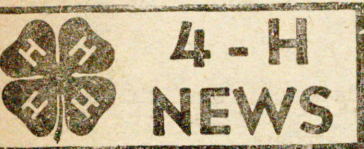

Dr. Kingston served Will county as coroner for 24 years. He began in 1920 and remained in office until 1936 when he was beaten during a Democratic landslide that saw only two Republicans elected to office in Will county. Political observers at that time recognized the surge of Democrat power and predicted that the GOP would lose the county. But there was one man on whom they banked—Dr. Kingston. Democrats freely conceded their man, the late Dr. Londus Brandon didn't have a chance and as far as is known no one made a penny on wagers against Kingston.

This defeat plus the fact that the then Republican organization was opposed to his running again caused Kingston to become a candidate in 1940 and this time he beat Brandon unmercifully, running up a majority of some 3,000.

Dr. Kingston operated the office of coroner justly and efficiently and his teachings have been carried on by the present holder of the office, Willard Blood, who was his chief deputy.

Dr. Kingston was an individualist. He also was an ardent fisherman, hunter and golfer. He was a former member of the Lockport high school board and of the Lockport library board and was one of the directors of the First National bank of Lockport. Dr. Kingston also was on the staffs of St. Joseph and Silver Cross hospitals. He was the oldest member of Lockport lodge, A.F. & A.M. and also was a past master of that lodge.

Besides his wife, Lenne, Dr. Kingston is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Arthur (Marjorie) Leonard, of Elgin, and a brother, Dr. Harold Kingston, of London, Ont., Canada.

HELPING HANDS 4H CLUB

At their meeting Nov. 16, held in the home of their leader Mrs. Leroy Bauman, the Helping Hand 4H club installed the following officers: Shirley Yunker, president; Marlene Ogden, vice president; Betty Anna Johnson, secretary; Donna Martin, treasurer. It was an impressive candle lighting ceremony.

Other officers are Maureen Phillippo, telephone chairman; Louise Bettenhausen, recreation and Dorothy Jean Stelter, reporter.

opposite the driveway leading into the school grounds. Bernard alighted and is said to have passed to the rear of the bus and then started across the high way. It was about 6:30 o'clock.

The car driven by Schert was traveling west. According to the state police report apparently neither pedestrian nor driver saw each other in time to avoid collision.

The boy was hit by the left front fender and according to a report at the school, he was hurled approximately 100 feet.

Faculty members on hand for the class party called for an ambulance and notified authorities. One of the science teachers, George Abraham, gave first aid to the injured lad while waiting for the ambulance.

The driver of the car was given a ticket by state police on a charge of traveling too fast for conditions. The stretch of highway in front of the school property is designated as a 35 mile an hour zone.

Agreement has been made with the developer and the village in regard to specifications for sewage, water mains, street lights, sidewalks, street signs, sanitary and storm sewers. The developer will reserve a school site on the property.

The five homes now under construction are located on the west side of Harlem ave., north of 175 st.

Permission has been given by the village for installation of a septic tank for one of the display homes. A temporary sewage treatment plant will be erected at the site.

CROP Seeks Aid For Needy

The Christian Rural Overseas Program, more familiarly known as CROP, has launched a nation wide appeal for food and other things necessary to alleviate the suffering of men, women and children in many foreign countries.

In Will county the goal is $4,000, in money or goods, according to Clare Hemphill, county chairman. James Tilsy, who lives near Orland, is the chairman for the area made up of Frankfort, New Lenox and Homer townships.

Wesley Hollstein and Harry Yunker are the co-chairman for Frankfort township, and Frank Pester and Daniel Sass are the co-chairmen for New Lenox township. The chairmen for Homer will be announced later.

There are hundreds of thousands of people in the world now homeless and hungry, Mr. Tilsy pointed out. The Hungarian situation adds urgently to the needs which CROP hopes to meet.

A town club has been started, Mr. Tilsy added, in which it costs $20 to become a member. Twenty dollars will send a ton of surplus food overseas for distribution, he said.

"Count your blessings," Tilsy said, "and then give all you can."

Persons can give cash, grain or other produce that can be converted into food or money. Persons may contact any of the co-chairmen or Mr. Tilsy relative to donations. One can send a check or one can arrange for delivery of produce.

The chairmen expressed their appreciation for the work done by the people who carried on the canvass—Mrs. Jane Bills, Mrs. Lucille Richetts, Mrs. Marguerite Scarth, Mrs. Ruth Horras, Mrs. Willard Munch, Mrs. Arthur Jackson, Mrs. Charles Hostert, Mrs. Leo Senglin, Mrs. Al Kuchenbecker, Mrs. Theodore Bueschel and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lehmann.

Miss Thanksgiving Dinners To Get Stock Ready For Show

Scores of farm youths will miss their Thanksgiving dinners at home this year in order to spend the holiday readying their animals for the forthcoming 57th International Live Stock Exposition opening in Chicago Nov. 23 for an 8 day run through Dec. 1.

Based on early entries, Exposition officials predict that last year's showing of more than 500 steers and hogs, shown by boys and girls from 12 states in the International junior live stock feeding contest, will be exceeded. The exhibitors are 4H and FFA members between 12 and 20 years old who have raised the animals as club projects.

Junior Show First

All of the International steer classes will be judged this year by Dr. A. D. Weber, Dean of the Kansas Agricultural college, Manhattan. His first judging will be of the hundreds of entries shown by these young showmen on the opening Saturday, Nov. 24.

Clifford Breeden, herdsman of the agricultural college farm at Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind., will judge the youngster's swine entries. First and second prize winners in both competitions are automatically admitted to open class competition in adult company, during the week that follows.

The International grand champion steer, most celebrated winner of the livestock show world, has been exhibited by junior owners 13 times in recent years, most recently at the International of a year ago when the award went to the Aberdeen-Angus entry of Nancy Turner, a Champaign county, Illinois farm girl.

Young Judges Compete

A national livestock judging contest for 4H participants is scheduled at Chicago as a pre-opening event of the exposition on Friday, Nov. 23. State champion teams of 4H boys or girls, trained in livestock judging, will compete here for national honors on the basis of their skill in judging classes of cattle, sheep and swine.

A similar contest for college students, the 57th International collegiate livestock judging contest, will be held the following day, Nov. 24.

At the 1955 show, 44 state agricultural college teams took part in this contest in which 5,010 college students, many of them leaders in the industry to day, have competed since the first contest in 1900 to date.

Heidrich Gets Frosh Numerals

Bill Heidrich of New Lenox, now attending Beloit college, has received his numerals as a member of the freshman football team.

Bill played an end at Beloit this fall, a position that is not new for him as he worked as such on the Lincoln-Way varsity.

This is the third year of existence for Lincoln-Way high. During the two years Heidrich attended he played football—sometimes as an end, sometimes as a tackle.

He looked very good in his first year of college play.

Sportabout

By Jack Maypole

I've already mentioned the advantages of using an outboard for duck hunting but that's not the only shooting sport that's made more productive and easy by boating—not by a long shot! Chasing the elusive quail can be made a lot easier, too! You know how it is with quail—you find several coveys of them and get in some pretty good shooting on covey rises—then, each time a covey of bobwhites flush, the birds fly from one hilltop to another and you go following them up and down hill until you're so weary, you could drop from exhaustion.

It's a lot better to use an outboard and just float along downstream until you find a place where the cover looks best. Turn the dogs loose and let 'em search a while. Another point not to be overlooked is that by using an outboard, you'll find fields seldom touched by other hunters for the simple reason the fields can't be reached by any other means than an outboard! You'll learn that in a hurry if you look for easy spots to hunt. You'll find a lot of other hunters but few birds. An outboard will take you into territory considered by other hunters as too difficult to reach or too far away to get to by foot.

Another use for an outboard is squirrel hunting. What could be better than slowly drifting downstream searching for hickory nut trees where the bushy-tails feed? It would take you days to cover the ground you can cover in hours in an outboard.

Big game hunters have known the value of an outboard for years. What better way to hunt deer and moose? Travel by water to where these animals can be found is a tremendous time saver. On foot it would take hours—in an outboard, it's a breeze—just a matter of minutes!

So remember, hunters, whether it's duck, grouse, squirrels, deer moose—or whatever you're hunting—you'll get better results with an outboard!

(You can hear Jack Maypole at 8:40 a.m. daily, M-F, over WJJD radio).

In the opening game of the basketball season, Lincoln-Way was defeated by Plainfield by a score of 47 to 26 in a game played at Plainfield on Nov. 16.

From the beginning of the first quarter to the last of the third quarter the Knights were at least seven points behind. In the fourth quarter, however, the Knights caught hold of a good streak of play and outscored Plainfield by six points. Of course, what with the poor scores of the other three quarters, didn't add up to enough that L-W would be the victor.

Shot charts proved that most of L-W's attempts at the basket were taken from much farther out on the floor than those of Plainfield's player. As a matter of fact, Plainfield's score was made mostly from under the basket and from the corners.

The Knights weren't too wide awake on the free throws, what with being allowed 13 tries and only making 4 pay off. On the other hand Plainfield was allowed 20 and made 11 pay off.

The shooting average for the Knights was a low 22½ while Plainfield's was approximately 51.

Last night, Nov. 21, the L-W Knights met Peotone at Lincolnway and on Nov. 27, Crete and Lincolnway will clash at Crete.

Pheasant, Quail Seasons Now on; Rabbits Sick?

The 20 day Illinois pheasant season which opened Nov. 11 will close Friday, Nov. 30. The bag limit is two cock pheasants and possession limit is four.

State conservation department staffers report pheasants somewhat more numerous than last year.

Quail hunting began last Saturday, Nov. 17 and will run for one month. There are more birds this year than last, it was reported.

Open season on rabbits will run from Nov. 24 thru Jan. 30. Whether it is weather or tularemia something has made rabbits sluggish this year, at least in the eastern sections of Will county. Several farmers have reported discovering that they have killed rabbits in discing fields.

"The rabbits just won't move," was the way one man expressed it, "and if one isn't careful he will run them down."

More than 100,000 Canada geese have been observed at three game refuges in southern Illinois.

Plan Hospital For Benefit Of Aged Patients

Intensive plans are under way for a two thousand bed chronic disease state hospital to be erected in the Chicago suburban area. This hospital will have the most modern facilities, with special features for elderly patients.

Gov. William G. Stratton, making this announcement, pointed out the problem of caring for the aged is growing as the proportion of elderly persons in the total population increases. Average life expectancy rose from 57 years in 1920 to 70 in 1955. In the last 35 years the state's general population over 65 years of age increased 250 per cent; state mental hospital population jumped 400 per cent.

Dr. Otto L. Bettag, director of public welfare, said the new hospital will not be a substitute for an old folks home, but instead will be a place for treating the physical conditions that frequently underline mental illness in the aged. It will provide the best in care for elderly mental patients who may not need or respond to specialized psychiatric treatment.

Bypasses To Be Big Factor In Highway Plans

Bypasses will be an integral part of the new federal highway program. But, generally, they will not have an adverse effect on business in the communities involved, says the Chicago Motor club.

The Motor club has studied the situation to determine its effect in Illinois and Indiana, according to Matthew C. Sielski, director of the club's safety and traffic engineering department, who declared:

"We realize that in order to move traffic efficiently, it must not pass thru municipalities.

This is equally important to the municipalities, because the tremendous amount of traffic carried over highways would unquestionably create hazards and congestion in those involved."

The kind of bypass contemplated in the federal program would not permit any business establishment to front on the roadway, according to Sielski. He said a major road leading from a city would cross an arterial highway only by means of grade separation.

"In the next 10 years," said Sielski, "we are going to see a major change in the alignment of major highways. A substantial number of cities will be bypassed. This might be of concern to both city officials and businessmen, thinking that a bypass would have an adverse effect on business."

He said the situation is best explained in a booklet, "How Bypasses Affect Business," recently published by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

Following are the 10 advantages of bypass routes listed in the booklet. Business activity generally increased due to improved traffic conditions; property values may increase in area traversed by the bypass because of increased accessibility; parking is made more convenient, due to reduced conflicts between parking vehicles and thru traffic.

Also: pedestrian safety and convenience is increased thru reduced volume of heavy, fast through traffic; fewer traffic accidents and delays on city streets due to separation of local and thru traffic; less wear and tear on city streets caused by heavy, long distance truck movement; reduced noise, exhaust fumes and traffic conflicts caused by through traffic, enhancing the utility of business districts.

Other benefits: through traffic is expedited and "accorded savings" due to avoiding unnecessary delay and accident hazard. Says the booklet on this point: "In view of the fact that over 79 per cent of the state highway funds are from state motor taxes, proper weight should be accorded the highway user's interest in the matter and his right to bypass benefits."

Of the fact that local traffic control is simplified by the bypass routes, the booklet states:

Traffic control and allocation of street space in the bypassed area can be aimed 100 per cent of facilitating local traffic, instead of making compromises to include thru traffic as well."

The principal disadvantage of bypasses, says the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, occurs where the bypass is installed where or when it is not needed.

THE NEWS-BULLETIN
Thur. Nov. 22, 1956 Sec. 1 Pg. 7

California's division of highways has made "innumerable" studies dealing with the effects of bypasses. The effects on cafes and bars range from a loss in one city of 9 per cent to a gain in another of 132 percent. Losses were found in three cities for service stations, going as low as 31 per cent, but with gains as high as 26 percent.

For all other business, only one city showed a loss. That amounted to only 1 percent, and gains reached as high as 22 percent. Of the nationwide accelerated highway construction plan, the Chamber of Commerce of the United States concludes:

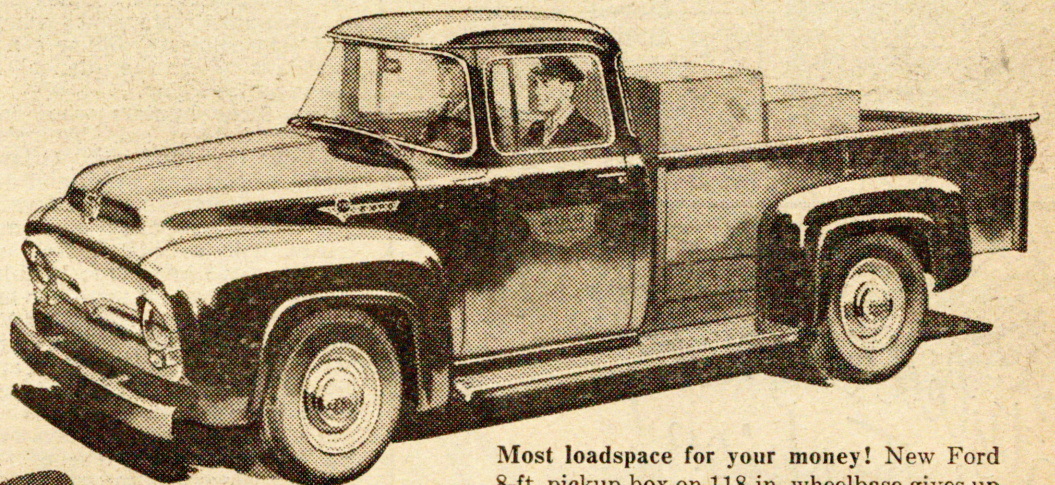

"Our entire national economy stands to benefit by this program."

FORD TRUCKS COST LESS

Most loadspace for your money! New Ford 8-ft. pickup box on 118-in. wheelbase gives up to 19 cu. ft. more capacity than any other 1/2-tonner! Regular 6 1/2-ft. box on 110-in. wheelbase offers full 45-cu. ft. capacity. Only Ford pickups offer the economy of Ford-pioneered Short Stroke design in your choice of Six or V-8 engine!

...less to own...less to run...last longer, too!

You save in every way with Ford trucks. First cost is low, operating costs are low, resale value is high, and a 10-million truck study proves Ford trucks last longer!

And you get more for your money with a Ford. For example, only Ford gives you modern Short Stroke power in every truck, every engine—V-8 or Six. And no one else can match Ford's five billion miles of Short Stroke engine experience. You get more comfort with a Driverized Cab, more safety with Ford's Lifeguard steering wheel and double-grip door latch.

From pickups to BIG JOBS, for trucks that cost less, give you more for your money—see your Ford Dealer!

Tinley Park the afternoon of the 11th. Mrs. H. G. Niebrugge chauffeured the boys from Laguna Woods.

The project at their Den meeting Nov. 14 was to make money for Christmas by selling wrapping paper. Rickey Eckel, Bruce Niebrugge and Charles Harris, from Mrs. Yoman's den, had competition from Ray and Chuck Cotter from a den in the Highlands, and are taking orders for the same paper. The Cub Scouts also made a wooden cut out of a reindeer and used their wood burning pencils to put in the markings. The lovely gifts were for their mothers. Nov. 21 the boys in Mrs. Yoman's Den prepared a gift basket for a needy family.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Manos are enjoying a visit from their daughter Mrs. Christine Nitz and her children Danny, Chris and Carl who arrived here from California Monday.

Nov. 17, the couples from Laguna Woods who were able to attend the firemen's dance in Orland Park were Mr. and Mrs. G. Bendix, the Al Carres, Jack Nelsons, Lawrence Woodburys, Robert Andersons, William Sneddens, Frank Militellos and William Murphys. The couples met at Brennans restaurant where they had a leisure dinner and then attended the dance in Saengers ballroom.

The three hunters who left Laguna at five am. Thursday morning to hunt in Ottawa could have stayed warm and dry and seen something worthwhile had they stayed closer to home!

Mrs. Wilbur Eckel had a family dinner at her home Thanksgiving day. Present were her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Velandier of LaGrange Park, and her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wendling of Chicago. John Jr. who is home from Central college for the holidays and his sister Pat who teaches in Michigan, were also guests.

Sledding Can Be Dangerous Sport --Hayes Warns

Before the snow arrives in sufficient depth, parents should admonish their children of the dangers of sledding on busy streets, says Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor club.

Excited with the advent of the first snow, children will act impulsively when sledding, Hayes said adding:

"A boy or girl on a sled is a greater hazard and a more vulnerable target than a pedestrian because it is not easy for a motorist to see a sled coming toward his vehicle. Secondly, the elements make it difficult for a driver to stop his car once he does see the sledding youngster, who is nothing more than a pedestrian on a pair of runners."

Parents should strongly urge their children to frequent park areas or yards where they won't encounter vehicular traffic, Hayes said.

Hitching sleds to the rear of autos, trucks and buses is another dangerous practice and can result in permanent injuries or death, the Motor Club president declared.

Sometimes there is enough ice on the streets for skating, but don't do it. Rinks and supervised areas are the safest places for such sport. Children are often wobbly on skates and can easily fall under a car.

Snow fights are fun, Hayes said, but in the excitement of throwing and ducking, it is easy to run into traffic. Furthermore, a hard snowball can cause painful and permanent injury.

Parents cannot warn their children too often of the dangers which accompany snow and ice, Hayes concluded.

Ancient Greek physicians called it "phthisis." Modern doctors call it tuberculosis. It's the same chronic, debilitating disease that strikes 100,000 Americans each year.

MUSIC DEPT.

The staff of the music department believes that music should be made available for the enjoyment of all high school students because music is a wonderful medium for developing character, leadership ability and aesthetic appreciation of the arts that will not only apply at the high school level but also as a carry over product in the lives of the students after graduation.

SANDBURG'S VOCAL DEPT.

Marsha Vleck, President

The vocal program at Sandburg includes a freshman chorus, a mixed chorus (both organizations are open to anyone who is interested) and from these are selected the ensembles. We have a girls' octet, a freshman quintet, and soon shall select the Girls' Glee club and a mixed quartet. Eventually, we hope to expand the vocal program to include a Freshman Boys' Singing class, Girls' Glee club, and a selected A Cappella choir.

The freshman chorus class is a general music class including sight reading, ear training, fundamentals of music theory, history of music, and general information about music and musicians.

The mixed chorus is concerned with furthering interests started in the previous year. They present four concerts during the year in collaboration with the band department. The festivals, clinics, and contests are held in the spring. The ensemble groups are special groups which work on their own time after school. These groups frequently perform for local organizations when there is a desire for music but where a large performing group is impracticable.

MUSIC

Frank Liston, Band President

The band is one of the fastest growing activities in Carl Sandburg high school and has a lot of pride in itself.

The contrast between the 1954 organization and the 1956-57 one is tremendous. The first step was to sound like a band. This was accomplished by the combined efforts of the director, Milton Potter, and the students. Next the band had to look like a band. Through the combined efforts of the Music Parents and Palos Park Lions club they were able to purchase uniforms to dress up the band. The first year the band gave four concerts, and they also took fourth place at the Harvard Milk Day Parade.

At the start of the second year the instrumentation began to fill out and the band had a little more depth. The band gave four concerts, attended the Northwestern Band day, received two firsts at State Music contest, and brought home the trophy in class A from the Harvard Milk Day parade.

The Music Parents and the board of education have bought more instruments to really fill out the instrumentation. This year the band will give four concerts. The band will also march at all home football games and provide half time entertainment with a few maneuvers. They will also attend Northwestern Band day where bands from all over Illinois participate in a massed band half time show. In addition the band will send people to the district solo contest trying for the first that will send them down state.

This year the band is better than ever and we hope to enter the State Music contest. The last activity for the band is Harvard Milk Day parade when we hope to improve over last year's standings.

SOLO AND ENSEMBLE CONTESTS

District solo and ensemble contests are held at a high school in our section of the state. The contests are divided into four classes, corresponding to the size of the school. Sandburg is in class A. Each school is allowed two contestants from each section of the band and chorus. The students compete among themselves at their own school to see who their representatives will be. The people who are selected put in a lot of time on their own. The soloists work every afternoon after school with supervised instruction and accompanists. They also work on their own at home. In addition they must keep up their studies.

Accompanists who are capable of playing for solos and ensembles must be skilled pianists and must have the same level of musicianship as the soloists they are accompanying. Though they do not receive medals they do receive the heartfelt thanks of the soloists.

Awards are given 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 5th place at district contest. Those who receive first are given the honor of attending the Illinois State Music contest. There again awards are given.

HEALTH PROGRAM

The health program in a school offers 1, healthful school living conditions, 2, appropriate health and safety education, 3, healthful physical education, and 4, school health services.

In the office of the school nurse, health services take the greatest amount of time and effort. The following services are provided at Carl Sandburg: Screening tests for vision and hearing are done every two years. In these we test all the students. Should there be indication for further examination, notification is sent to the parents advising consultation with their family physician. Heights and weights are checked annually on all students. Each student is given a card from the American Dental Association as a reminder to make an appointment with his own dentist. Annual chest X rays are done by the mobile x-ray unit of the Tuberculosis Institute. These x-rays are scheduled this spring on April 3 and 4 at the school. Reminders of need for immunization against diphtheria, tetanus and small pox are sent periodically.

Elizabeth Compher, Merle Martin

All of these school health services are done in an effort toward the prevention of disease or to facilitate early diagnosis of a physical impairment.

Elizabeth K. Compher, R. N. is school nurse at Sandburg.

PTA News

SANDBURG UNIT

The Carl Sandburg PTA sponsored smorgasbord Oct. 27 was hailed as a big success. Latest tabulations indicate net receipts will be slightly in excess of $1,000. Carl Sandburg PTA is grateful to every one who contributed to the success of the venture.

The PTA board met at the high school, LaGrange road and 133rd street, Orland Park, Nov. 13 and the smorgasbord reports were of most immediate concern. Altho much of the food was donated, many expenditures also arose in accomodating about a thousand people. Paper plates and other table appointments, coffee, rolls, dairy products, meats, shrimp, relishes and clean towel service were a few of the expenses. Many merchants did all they could to help. The experience of coordinating such quantities of food and workers over such a large area as is served by Carl Sandburg High school can never be set down in hard figures. The results mean a continuance of PTA activities including circulation of the PTA monthly paper "For Parents Only," and scholarship awards to 1957 June graduates.

The membership drive is still in progress under the direction of Mrs. T. W. Swanson. Thus far it has been exceptionally successful. Persons missed are asked to call her at Gibson 8-1569 if they wish to join. Membership is divided among parents in the following communities approximately as follows: Palos Park, 85%; Palos Heights and Orland Park, each 80%; Worth, 53% and Quin, 40%.

O.K. Site For Gas Co. Office

The Will county zoning board of appeals has approved the request to reclassify 20 acres of farmland at Gougar road and Washington st., New Lenox township, so the corporation can erect a district office and garage there.

If the recommendation of the appeals board is approved by the board of supervisors the property will become classified as I-1 light industry.

The improvements intended for the tract will add considerable to the valuation and therefore of benefit to the schools. There were some objectors at the hearing held by the appeals board Tuesday night, Nov. 20, from the residential section of Cherry Hill, which begins approximately a quarter of a mile west of the proposed gas company improvement.

The objectors said they did not oppose the gas company's plans but feared that the reclassification would open the door to forms of industry which might be detrimental to their property.

The board also approved a request of John Warren, a contractor, to allow him to expand the area of his storage yard along the New York Central tracks off Gougar road, south of the gas company property. Warren now uses six acres. He asked I-1 classification for 21 acres more. The board will recommend that he be allowed some expansion but the classification would cover considerable ly less than 21 acres.

The board also will recommend a variation in the case of a Standard Oil service station to be built at the southeast corner of Wolf and LaPorte roads in Mokena, to conform with state regulations concerning the set back of pumps and signs. The variation will allow the placing of the pumps and station sign 13 feet in from the property line.

The request of James G. Skiniotes for a B-1 classification for his property at Francis road and Spector avenue, New Lenox, was turned down by the board. Skiniotes wanted to build a garage sufficient to house three trucks and two cars of plastering equipment. There were objectors and they claimed that the deeds to property in that particular area restricted back-lot building to a small tool shed.

Mokena Gives Notice Of Sewer Bond Election

Formal notice is given the public in this issue of the News-Bulletin that the village of Mokena is to hold a bond issue election Dec. 8.

The purpose of the referendum is to get approval of issuing $100,000 in bonds to defray a part of the cost of installing a sanitary sewer system in the village, plus a sewage treatment plant.

The bonds would be retired over a 20 year period. If approved they will be sold at an open sale and the interest rate will not exceed 4 3/4 per cent.

The village hall on Front st. will serve as the polling place for the election and will be open from 6 a.m. to 5 p.m.

A copy of the ordinance setting forth the details of the proposed improvement and the election may be read elsewhere in this issue.

Falling Rock Crushes Finger of 11-Year Old Boy

Robert Heinecke, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Heinecke, of Township Line rd., the former August Hauck farm, is recovering in Silver Cross hospital Joliet, from an accident which almost severed one finger and crushed another.

The mishap occurred at 1:15 pm. Saturday, Nov. 17, when Robert was emerging from a play house on the farm grounds. His hand was on the sill of the play house, when his brother Everett who was on top of the structure, inadvertently dropped a large rock which fell on Robert's left hand.

The forefinger was almost cut off and the middle finger was crushed by the rock.

Dr. P. T. Demus, of Mokena, repaired the damage to the forefinger at the hospital.

Robert is expected to return to his home this weekend.

Edward Roemer Succumbs At 66

Edward Roemer, 66, late of 159th st. and 88th ave., Tinley Park, died in St. Joseph's hospital, Joliet, Tuesday Nov. 20 following a lingering illness.

He was born Sept. 18, 1890 on a farm near Tinley Park, his parents being the late Mr. and Mrs. Christian Roemer.

He was married to Elizabeth Barenz of Mokena in 1915 and went to housekeeping in Orland Park. In 1918 they bought the farm on 159th street. To them were born two sons and one daughter. Mrs. Roemer died in 1940 and several years later Mr. Roemer was united in marriage with Martha Kolloway of Blue Island.

Besides his widow, Mr. Roemer is survived by a daughter, Helen, Mrs. Ervin Manzke, Mokena; two sons, Elmer of Manhattan and Alvin of Tinley Park. A sister Elsie died in 1929.

Removal was made to the Hirsch chapel in Tinley Park where friends may call after 3 pm. Friday afternoon and during the evening. Funeral services will be held in St. John's

Henry Burch, 94, Life Resident Of Homer, Dies

Henry H. Burch, 94 years old, a native of Homer township, died Sunday, Nov. 18, in the house in which he was born, that is located on what is now known as East Division street, near Lockport. He broke a hip in a fall a year ago and had been unable to walk since that time.

His parents, Jacob and Elizabeth Burch, came west in 1842. They found land to their liking in what is Homer township, built a log cabin and began farming. Later they built another home and it was there that Henry Burch was born Oct. 13, 1862.

Henry Burch married Harriet A. Gardner, of Homer, Sept. 9, 1885, and the couple had six children, all of whom survive. Mrs. Burch, however, died in 1937.

Except for a 10 year interval when he lived at what is now known as the Reed Burch home, Mr. Burch spent all his days where he was born. He operated the home farm until he retired some 30 years ago. Since then the place has been farmed by his sons under his approving eye.

Mr. Burch operated a steam threshing machine in the area for many years.

He also was interested in wild life and hunting. Baseball, books and radio claimed a lot of his attention. He also took an active part in the building of the new Homer church. The lumber for the church was cut on his farm.

Surviving Mr. Burch are three sons and three daughters, Reed and Robert, of Homer and Ralph of Sheldon, Wis.; Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson and Mrs. Willard A. (Margaret) Rowley, of Homer and Mrs. Frank (Irene) Milne, of Lockport; 15 grandchildren and 36 great grandchildren. Three brothers died in infancy.

Removal was to the Goodale funeral home, Lockport, from where services were held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock with the Rev. Philip Muth, of the Homer church, and the Rev. H. R. Jay, of Mt. Pleasant, Ia., officiating. Interment was in Barnett cemetery.

L-W Teacher Directs Original Film For State

Mrs. Mildred Foster, home-making teacher at Lincoln-Way high school and consultant to the state of Illinois in the textile field, is busy now with the making of an instructional film, "Clothed in Color," which the state plans to use in training employees at state hospitals and schools. It also will be used on TV to publicize the work that is being done in clothing patients in such institutions.

Providing clothing for such patients is a big task in itself but the maintenance and care of the garments is an herculean job too.

The film is being made at the Anna and Kankakee state hospitals. Mrs. Foster wrote the script and is directing the production of the film. Fred Sharp a University of Illinois photographer, is shooting the film. Mrs. Ann Davis, clothing supervisor, is assisting in the directing. The narration will be handled by the Calvin Co. of Kansas City, Mo.

Salesman Sues Dog Owner Because Of Bites by Pet

(CNS) George Schweiger, 8450 78th court, Oak Lawn, was sued for $15,000 damages in circuit last week by Jesse W. Holobough, a magazine salesman who was bitten by Schweiger's dog on April 15, 1955.

The court contends Holobough calling on his rounds, was entitled to notice that the dog had a "ferocious disposition and was accustomed to attack and bite mankind." Gale Marcus was the lawyer.

Telephone Demonstration

Friday, Nov. 9, a representative of the Illinois Bell Telephone Company demonstrated to Lincoln-Way teachers a new device for teaching telephone habits. This teletrainer was developed up request by the schools after surveys of industries showed telephone habits to be the area in which their employees were most lacking.

Plans are to use this teletrainer in English classes on freshman and sophomore levels and the office practice classes on senior level.

Common Learnings

Paul Palmer of Joliet, a native of Greece who has been living in this country a year, spoke to Mrs. Jane Sullivan's English II classes on Nov. 8. This was in connection with the unit on "People of Other Countries."

Seniors in Common Learnings had an opportunity to hear the Rev. Cecil Coop and the Rev. Ben Day who spoke on "Religion in Marriage."

In social studies freshmen listened to Sgt. Jack Carlstrom, safety education officer of Illinois state police, who gave tips on increasing safety on the highway.

Attends Conference

Miss Theresa Hartman, chairman of the committee on gifted students, attended a conference on gifted students held at the University of Chicago Nov. 12-14. At this conference were educators from all over the United States and Canada who spoke on programs for gifted children in both elementary and high schools. In addition, Dr. Seymour L. Wolfbein of the United States department of labor and Howard E. Wilson of the National Education Association spoke of the role of the gifted student in our increasing manpower shortage.

Lincoln-Way is starting a program to identify and plan programs for the gifted in dramatic, artistic, mechanical, musical, literary, and social leadership areas as well as those gifted in general intelligence.

Tri-Fold Assembly

"Loyalty, laughter, and loadstone" may well have been the title of L-W's assembly program Friday, Nov. 9.

To begin the program Ron Studnicki, president of the Letterman's club, presented to Supt. Chapman an American flag for use in the gymnasium. Second, the Footlighters, L-W's dramatics group, presented excerpts from two plays and one play in its entirety described by one of its players, Bill Noble, as "sounding like a 45 r.p.m. record played at 78 r.p.m. record speed."

Third was the kick-off for the magazine sales campaign. Donald Munch, representative of the Curtis Publishing Co., and Beverly Jones, chairman of the committee gave the background for the sales. Seniors and freshmen will form a "black" team and juniors and sophomores a "red" team to compete for prizes for class treasures. The presidents of the classes, senior, Jim Warning; Junior, Jim Stauffenberg, Sophomore Elaine Hermann; and Freshman Eleanor Zimmerman gave pep talks to class teams.

In addition to prizes for classes and clubs, individual prizes will be awarded to high salesmen. This year's high salesman will choose between a movie camera, record player, watch and jewelry, radio, or a $50 scholarship.

Candy Bar Sale

The Lincoln-Way Community high school band held a candy bar sale from Oct. 12 to Oct. 29. The amount of candy bars sold was 4220 which brought in a total of $2,110.38 This is a tentative and incomplete report.

The band was divided into four teams with Stan Korista captain of Team 1, David McGuire, Team 2, John Marceaux, Team 4, and Lorraine Redman, Team 4. Team one had the highest amount of sales and Team 2 had the second highest. According to plan, Teams 3 and 4 will give a party for the two highest teams. The top salesman was LaVerne Ullrich with $149 which won for him a portable radio. Second highest salesman with $146 was Norman Sievert who received a $10 gift certificate at Coppatelli's Music Shop.

With the funds raised by the candy bar sales additional band uniforms will be purchased. The band wishes to thank everyone who helped to make the endeavor a success.

Future Nurses

Carol Crouse, Raydene Cook, and Janet Santerelli, members of the Lincoln-Way Future Nurses and their co-sponsors, Mrs. Alice Gorman and Miss Mary Don Butzback, attended an organizational meeting for a district Future Nurses Association at Joliet Township high school Nov. 13. Schools represented were Rich, Joliet Lockport, and Lincoln-Way. Miss Teresa Shier of the public relations department at Silver Cross served as consultant to the group.

Homemaking Department

Tuesday, Nov. 13, Miss Catherine Carter, state supervisor for this area, visited in the home economics department. Miss Carter is the new area supervisor, having previously taught home economics at Farmer City for the past several years.

In addition to her visit to the department, Miss Carter also worked with Betty Lichtenwalter, a Lincoln-Way student, who is state public relations chairman for the Illinois Future Homemakers of America.

Need Gleaners In Corn Fields

This season's average loss of mechanically harvested Illinois corn may amount to 12 bushels an acre on the average, according to the state and federal departments of agriculture. It ran this high because of extremely dry weather. However, more than half of the ears and shelled corn thus missed by the machines will probably be saved, either by picking it up by hand or turning livestock into the fields.

About 95 percent of the bumper Illinois corn crop has been harvested.

The long-range weather forecast covering the remainder of Nov. says that cloudy, cold, wet conditions may be expected. Precipitation is likely to be above normal, following a Sept. and Oct. unusually warm and dry. Most of Illinois, the report says, is likely to have temperatures averaging colder than normal, except that near normal temperatures are predicted for the northern quarter of the state.

A University of Illinois agricultural engineer says that dopes for fuel or oil in small quantity don't do very much good or very much harm.

Twice around the world and still like new!

Ford is the first and only car ever to travel 50,000 miles in less than 20 days—at an average speed of over 108 mph! That's more mileage than most people put on their cars at normal speeds in five years!

It happened on the Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah! Two '57 Fords—Ford-prepared, preproduction models, identical in every respect with the cars now offered by your Ford Dealer—proved their mettle in the toughest test of automotive stamina ever attempted!

And at the end of almost 20 days and 50,000 miles of continuous driving (with stops only for pit service) both Fords were still going strong!

This is a true test of the ruggedness built into Ford's new Thunderbird deep-block V-8 engines . . . the matching stamina of the revolutionary new "Inner Ford." This is a reason—one of many—why your low-priced car dollars can't buy finer than Ford for '57.

Santa Arrives In Joliet For Pre-Yule Visit

Santa Claus is arriving in Joliet on Friday of this week—Nov. 23, at 10 a.m. to greet old friends and meet new in Will county.

Experience has taught the jovial saint that he just can't hardly depend on snow no more away from the North Pole, so he comes as far as he can with sleigh and reindeer and then finishes up by plane.

He will use helicopter for his trek to Joliet this week and land on the Central school grounds at Webster and Chicago street, right smack downtown.

There he will be greeted by a vast reception committee of bands, dancers, animals and toyland figures that will then move off in a parade thru the Joliet loop—south on Chicago street to Jefferson, west to Ottawa street and thence north to the library grounds where a new horse trailer has been parked against a background of Christmas trees to serve Santa a quarters during his pre-Christmas visit. There youngsters can meet him and confide their desires and hopes for Christmas. Each young visitor will receive a candy cane as a souvenir.

But getting back to the parade set for Friday someone may want to know if Santa will borrow a sleigh for the occasion. He will not. Santa will ride the parade route aboard a big, red fire engine, and any small boy will tell you that's super.

Gettysburg Address Carefully Prepared, Declares Authority

Two popular myths concerning Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg Address which have gained credence thru the years were refuted by Dr. R. Gerald McMurtry, director of The Lincoln National Life Foundation sponsored by The Lincoln National Life Insurance Co. in discussing the 93rd anniversary of the address, which fell on Monday of this week, Nov. 19.

One such story pointed out by Dr. McMurtry claims that Lincoln wrote the now famous speech on an old piece of wrapping paper with a borrowed pencil stub while on the train from Washington to Gettysburg. Another tale has it that the address was not composed until Lincoln reached the home of his Gettysburg host, Col. David Wills.

"Careful research, however," stated Dr. McMurtry, "shows the facts to be quite different. The Library on Congress has both a preliminary draft and the battlefield copy of the Gettysburg address. Comparison of the two copies reveals corrections on the battlefield copy, indicating previous preparation of the preliminary draft. Noah Brooks, one of Abraham Lincoln's secretaries, was told by the President several days before the dedication date that the speech already was written and that what he had ready to say was, 'short, short, short.' At least three Government officials are reported to have read the manuscript at Washington before Lincoln departed for the ceremonies."

According to Dr. McMurtry, these facts are ample proof that Lincoln devoted time and care to the preparation of his Gettysburg Address and that the acceptance of this speech as a masterpiece was not the lucky happenstance of extemporaneous oratory, but rather the reward of sincere, reverent and careful preparation.

Dairy Farmers Get Raise In Milk Price

Dairy farmers who shipped milk to Chicago Market plants during October will get five cents a hundred more for that milk than for September shipments, according to Harry L. Edwards, Director of Sales, Pure Milk Association.

Edwards said the Milk Market Administrator in Chicago announced a uniform (blend) price of $3.87 a hundred pounds for Grade A milk testing 3.5 per cent butterfat and delivered to the 70 mile zone in October.

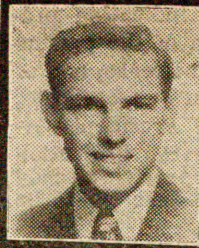

This figures at about eight and one third cents a quart to farmers at the 70 mile zone before deductions.

The announced price is one-cent below the $3.88 paid in October, 1955, and is two cents more than the August price of $3.85 which had been the highest price paid Chicagoland dairy farmers this year.

Chief reason for the increase, according to Edwards, is a ten-cents per hundred rise in the condensery pay price. This price currently is used as a basis for figuring the fluid milk price.

Total production for the month was 365,781,369, some 36 million (9.5%) above September and 39.5 million (10.8%) above October of 1955.

FARM NEWS

For Cook County
by

W. F.
Whiteside

assistant farm adviser

Five youthful dairymen will have an opportunity to see what happens to raw milk when it leaves the farm. Richard Blume and Robert Stellwagen, Tinley Park; Dale Twietmeyer, Frankfort; Jerry Curl, Orland Park and Ronald Hattendorf, Matteson are touring a large dairy plant in Chicago on Friday, Nov. 23. They will see bottling and manufacturing of milk. Herbert Kohl, Matteson, local 4-H club leader, will accompany the boys on the tour.

Audrey Mascitti, Steger, president of the 4-H Federation reports a large crowd at the recent "get-acquainted" meeting sponsored by the group. They enjoyed a talk by Mrs. Thompson, Monee, about her recent trip to Russia.

Officers of the Federation invite older 4-H members to attend meetings of the group. A splendid program has been planned for the winter months.

I have attended and will attend several local 4-H club achievement meetings during the month. It is always a pleasant experience to see boys and girls recognized for accomplishments.

Equally as satisfying are the looks of pride on the faces of parents and local leaders.

Members, parents and leaders striving toward a common goal, with government of action thru the democratic process, is a sight to behold and enjoy.

Typical of the many achievement programs was the joint meeting of the Rich-Bremen and Rich-Go-Getters clubs. Leaders Herbert Kohl and Mel Hoyer of Rich-Bremen and Mrs. Herbert Kohl and Alene Elbers of Rich-Go-Getters presented the awards. Parents and friends of members were on hand to share in the proceedings. Recreation followed. And everyone went home with a feeling of pride and satisfaction.

Woody ornamental trees and shrubs usually need little care. However, they will be healthier and more attractive if you fertilize, prune, and water them in the late fall.

In frequent, but thoro drenching of the soil is better than light watering for both ornamentals and lawn. Evergreens require an abundance of water in the fall before the ground freezes.

After deciduous trees and shrubs shed their leaves, you can safely apply fertilizer.

No not fertilize evergreens at this time of year. High nitrogen fertilizers induce a soft growth which is susceptible to winter injury.

Prune dead or poorly branching limbs in late autumn. If cut surface is over two inches in diameter, paint with asphalt tree wound dressing. Cut surfaces of evergreens need not be treated, as resinous sap dries and forms protective coating.

Soil temperatures are the key to getting full value from nitrogen fertilizers applied in the fall, points out E. H. Tyner, University of Illinois extension specialist in soil fertility.

Recently Tyner and "Dusty" Farnham, manager of the Agronomy farm, took a soil temperature reading on the university farm.

They used a regular soil thermometer that's made to insert easily into the soil. However, Tyner says any ordinary thermometer can be used.

On the day they took the reading, the soil temperature was 62 degrees. This was too high to apply nitrogen safely on most Illinois soils. To avoid excessive nitrogen loss, agronomists recommend that soil temperatures be below 55 degrees.

Of the 629 tuberculosis deaths in Chicago last year, 71 percent was among people 45 years old and over.

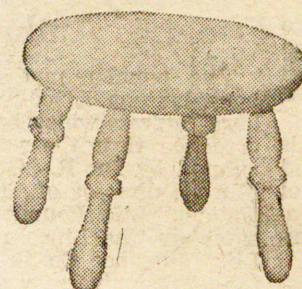

The support of a great American newspaper, the Philadelphia NORTH AMERICAN and columnist Leigh Mitchell Hodges made a success of the first American Christmas Seal Sale to raise funds to fight tuberculosis.

Embezzlers have been found to have the highest intelligence of any class of criminals.

The Suez and world situation added to other pressures, insure an increase in the price spiral and likely not later than the first quarter of 1957.

The steel industry, for one, now finds that the price increase which followed the steel strike, has not been enough to insure healthy progress for the industry. It is expected that there will be a price increase, at the mill level, of about six percent. Such an increase pyramids and pushes up prices in many industries.

The current and expected near term demand for steel, demands an expansion of mill capacity. Large sums of money will be required for such expansion and the funds can only come from earnings and from the investing public. There is at present a greater demand for steel than there is capacity to produce it. It is usually assumed that it requires about a year and a half between the start of a new steel mill and production from that mill.

Steel capacity has been increased about 40 per cent since World War II, but demand still exceeds supply and especially in the heavier gauge plate market. Some experts in this field expect the heavier gauges to remain in tight supply for several years to come.

They point out that the government is embarked on a $50 billion road building program; the petroleum industry planning to spend about $33 million in the next five years, the construction industry planning on not less than $60 billion in the same period; and the ship building industry expecting a very considerable increase. Our government is likely to push the building of some 50 super oil tankers which will require about 750,000 tons of heavy steel plate. This of course, due to the Middle East oil situation and the likelihood of difficulties in that region continuing for some time to come. A continuous flow of oil from reliable sources is paramount for ourselves and western Europe.

Prices of petroleum products will no doubt be increased and oil production in the western hemisphere expanded considerably.

The world situation demands that this country, for its own safety, cannot relax defense expenditures and, in fact, is likely to increase this spending.

Price increases already visible, will bring about a cost-of-living increase in many wage rates which are now common in labor contracts. In addition, it is anticipated that there will be new demands for wage increases under those labor contracts expiring in 1957.

The price structure of all basic materials will be effected by these pressures. The military demands due to recent upheavals aggravate the situation.

The prudent investor will take and added interest in common stocks which will reflect purchasing power changes rather than fixed dollar obligations.

Lohman Wants Parole Law For County Prisoners

Sheriff Lohman said he plans to ask the legislature to install a parole system at the county jail.

The jail should help rehabilitate inmates rather than just punish them Lohman said. He added that it costs $1,100 a year to keep a man in jail but only $40 to keep him under parole supervision.

Lohman advanced the plan at a conference Monday in the city hall chambers on correctional procedures in Cook county.

The conference was attended by 750 civic professional, religious and community groups.

Dime Store Fights City Hall; Opposes Mall

(CNS) Suit for an injunction to restrain the city of Chicago Heights and its officials from going ahead with plans to make a "mall" of Otto boulevard between 16th and Halsted streets in the suburb has been filed in circuit court by S. S. Kresge Co. and the Chicago National Bank, representing Trusts 4442 and 7390.

The trusts hold title to property at 1606-10 Otto boulevard, which are inside lots whose only means of ingress are from Otto, according to the suit. Kresge operates a two-story adjoining next to a three-story store tenanted by Grayson's, the suit states.

In 1955, the east 25 feet of Otto boulevard was vacated for street purposes by the city council, Mayor Carl W. McGhee stating that under a "gentlemen's agreement" the remainder of the street would be closed as a mall so that the owner of the adjoining property might use the sidewalk privileges, suit alleges.

However, on Jan. 26, 1956, ordinance was passed and under it an architect has been engaged under a plan which week resulted in the street being closed to traffic for the suit states.

THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the father, and we shall be satisfied." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you so long, and yet you do not know me, Philip?" (John 14:8,9 RSV.)

At a family conference in a secluded woodland area, our five-year-old son became separated from his age group. I found him in tears. "What happened?" I asked. "I just stopped for a minute to look up," he cried. "I heard the trees brushing the clouds, and I saw a bird flying. When I looked down, everybody had gone."

The world does not wait while we pause to look around. Like Philip, many of us walk in the presence of God unaware of Him. Made by God, we live in His setting. His gifts surround us, and we use them every moment of our lives. Yet we are so ungrateful.

The secret of thanksgiving lies in our awareness of God. Christ's spirit in us teaches us appreciation and love for God, and sheds a magic glow over our attitudes and actions.

PRAYER
Our Father, we have frequently failed in our praise of Thee because we have not learned the secret of awareness. Help us to become aware of Thy presence in us, in others, and in Thy gifts to us, through Christ. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
The secret of giving thanks is awareness of God.

Marines Make Special Offers To Recruits

Ins. Marines -124 2xF ... z y, Aviation minded young men between the ages of 17-28 can now enlist in the United States Marine Corps and be assured of training in the aviation field. This is according to marine recruiters.

Acceptable young men that enlist in the regular Marine Corps will be guaranteed that they will be assigned to an aviation school following completion of their basic training, it was said.

Maj. E. S. Baker, r., officer in charge of the Chicago Marine recruiting area, announced today that this is the first time in the history of the Marine Corps that an offer of this nature has been made. More information is available at the Marine recruiting office at the Harvey postoffice.

And the 9th Automatic Weapons Battery of the Marine Corps Reserve has announced that it now has a limited number of openings for young men desiring to complete their active duty obligation in only six months.

The program is available only to young men between 17 and 19 1/2 years of age. If eligible the young man will select the time he goes on active duty through one of three options:

He can begin active duty immediately on enlistment.

If a high school student he must graduate first and will be allowed to stay in school to do so.

He may enlist for a date in the near future, thus reserving an opening in the program.

Regardless of which option is selected, he is draft exempt from the date he volunteers, it was said.

Upon reporting for training at San Diego, Calif., the man will be required to undergo a training period of six months duration after which he must participate with the Marine Corps Reserve at home. Details may be obtained by contacting Capt. Simanikas at Joliet 2-8313 Ins. PTA news

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The inability of evil to withstand spiritual understanding of the Christ, Truth, will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday, November 25. Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, De-nounced" will include the following (Philippians 2:5,13): "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus . . . For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read the following (26:27): "The five material senses testify to truth and error as united in a mind both good and evil. Their false evidence will finally yield to Truth,—to the recognition of Spirit and of the spiritual creation."

The Golden Text is from III John (1:11): "Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good."

School Board Meeting

At last Monday night's meeting the board of Homer's Consolidated school district met with their architect, Watson A. Healy, to further discuss building plans, but no definite decisions were reached. The group is undecided as to the advisability of building a six room school, five rooms of which will be needed next year, or of putting up a larger building which will doubtless be needed, before many years. In the latter case, they would finish the necessary rooms as needed. The preliminary cost of land, heating plant, drainage field, etc. would be the same for either plan, but the initial bond issue would of course be somewhat larger should they decide on the larger building. Should the smaller building be chosen now, it would be planned with the idea of enlarging it as needed.

It is not thought that it will be necessary to transfer any pupils from one district to another this year unless they become more crowded than at present.

This Missionary society of Homer church will be entertained in the home of Mrs. Frank Parker and Mrs. Marjorie Pease on Thursday, Nov. 29. Potluck dinner will be served at noon.
